

Mayor Karl Dean with two long-time clients, Latasha and Althea. They each have taken huge steps toward financial stability - paid off student loans, started savings, reduced debt, and both feel confident and hopeful about the future.

Meet 1-on-1 with a Nashville Financial Empowerment counselor who can help you:

- Manage your bills
- Work through your debt
- Establish or improve your credit
- Create a budget
- Open a bank account
- Save and plan for your future
- And much more

We will help coach you every step along the way to financial security.

Financial counseling is free, confidential, and available to all Davidson Co. residents 18 and older. Our professional counselors speak English & Spanish, and we utilize translation services for many other languages.

We can help you achieve your financial goals such as paying off debt, saving for college, or purchasing a car or home.

“After working with our financial counselor for a year, we were finally able to achieve our dream of purchasing our first home. We are so grateful!”

- Maria & Kenneth, Nashville

Need help managing bills?

"Free counseling sessions left me being hopeful because I now have avenues to explore. Perseverance and encouragement of my counselors keeps me in the real world."

- Eva, Nashville

Do you want to understand your finances but don't know where to begin?

"After my appointment, I felt like I could breathe again. I could see the light at the end of the tunnel. Now I have a goal and a plan and don't feel like hiding under a rock anymore."

- Rosa, Nashville

Have you seen offers from companies promising to "fix" your debt...but only if you pay them first?

"We are finally regaining financial control with the help of the Empowerment Center. Our personal specialist, Ashley, at the empowerment center is here to help, listen to your concerns, answer questions, and explain solutions in a way that is easy to understand. We find everyone at the center to be courteous and helpful and knowledgeable. Thank you!"

- Willie & Birdie, Nashville
